STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

Papers are due on April 21, 2023

We are pleased to announce a Student Paper Competition as part of the 4th International Symposium on Freeway and Tollway Operations 4ISFO thanks to the generous support from the ERTICO Innovation Platform on interactive traffic management, TM 2.0.

Transportation students and their collaborators are invited to submit a TRB styled paper limited to 5,000 words as counted in the instructions for publication in the Transportation Research Record.

A student may be the sole author. If there is more than one author, then the leading author must be a current student in good standing. The student is the only author eligible to compete for the 4th ISFO student paper award.

The award includes up to 3300 euros per student in paid travel expenses for the top three (3) finalists to present their paper at the conference. In addition, the first, second and third ranked papers will receive award certificates along with 1000, 750 and 500 euros, respectively. The student paper submission deadline is on Friday, April 21. The results will be announced on Tuesday, May 2.

Student authors should include 4th ISFO Student Paper Competition on the cover of their paper and go to the 4th ISFO Call for Papers for instructions on how to submit their paper.

Papers will be scored as follows:

- ✓ 15% compatibility with 4th ISFO themes
- ✓ 15% quality of submission and understandability
- ✓ 15% usefulness to the industry, practicality, and readiness for real world application
- ✓ 55% technical analysis, innovation, and completeness
