

AustriaTech-Newsletter, issue 05/19

Dear readers,

our living environments are changing and so are all our mobility patterns. All of us, both AustriaTech as an expert organisation and you personally, must decide in favour of climate-friendly means of transport and sensitise our mobility behaviour. This newsletter provides insights into the future of mobility, which changes are imminent, which have already happened and how mobility can become greener and safer. And how do you detoxify your mobility?

Enjoy reading,
Your AustriaTech editorial team

News from the citizens' debate 2019

On 6 April 2019, the Citizens' Dialogue on Automated Mobility took place at five locations in Austria, which are part of an international dialogue series. First results show the expectations and concerns of the population. You can read what these are here. >>> more
